5th Week of the Quarter

"Our Father, we pray for a broader vision of the needs of all mankind, and a deeper compassion to fill those needs. Help us to be gentle, walking softly with one another. Help us to be understanding, lest we shall add to the world's sorrow or cause to flow one needless tear. Help us to stand for what is right, not because it may yield dividends later, but because it is right now. Help us to be as eager to forgive others as we are to seek forgiveness. Help us to know no barriers of creed or race, that our love may be like Thine -- a love that sees all persons as Thy children...."

"The Challenge of the Church's Unfinished Business"

The first annual Student Missions Conference will be held from Tuesday-Thursday. This conference has been student-planned and initiated. The conference will both challenge and refresh the Fuller community concerning its role in the task of world evangelization. We warmly welcome both the speakers and participants of this conference to our campus.

TUESDAY
January 29

Our Community Day speaker will be Dr. Ralph Winter, Director of the U.S. Center for World Mission, Adjunct Professor in the School of World Mission, leading mission strategist, and former Presbyterian missionary to Guatemala. Dr. Winter's talk will focus on clarifying the most pressing needs in the task of world evangelization.

WEDNESDAY
January 30

Dr. Warren Webster, General Director of the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society and former missionary to Pakistan, will present the second address of his three-part series on the conference theme. Special music will be provided by Dr. Dean Gilliland.

11:00 a.m. -- Miss Ruth Siemens, Director of Overseas Counseling Service (a placement service of self-supporting missionaries), and member of the Inter Varsity staff, will speak on the importance of self-supporting missionary work, and the philosophy behind that ministry.

THURSDAY
January 31

Dr. Warren Webster concludes his series of addresses on the conference theme. Special music will be provided by Mr. John Hubbard, brother of Dr. David A. Hubbard, our president.

The SEMI is published by the Student Services Office on Monday of each week as a service to the Fuller Community. Notices may be submitted to the editor (Student Services Building, #120, 2nd floor) until 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday of the week prior to publication. No late notices, and no artwork can be accepted. Users are encouraged to submit notices no longer than 10 lines. Final editorial control rests with the Director of Student Services, Cecil M. Robeck, Jr. For further information, please contact the managing editor, Diane Hollis (x. 159).

THIS WEEK'S CALENDAR

FRIDAY

January 25

Potluck, praise, and worship in the Catalyst, beginning at 6:00 p.m. The potluck supper will begin at 6:00 p.m.; bring enough food to feed 2-3 others. Praise and worship will begin at 7:00 p.m., featuring Chris Burke; this will be our last opportunity to hear Chris before he returns to Arizona. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to join us for a time of warmth, good food, fellowship, singing, and prayer. (Susan Highleyman, box 951)

Interviews with the Director of Personnel for the Christian and Missionary Alliance, Rev. Philip Skellie, will be held throughout the day. Interviews can be set up through the Placement Office. (Glory Hees, x. 185)

The Fuller Follies, the grandest event of the year, will be held at 7:30 p.m., at the Pasadena Christian School. Come and see student, staff, and faculty talent at its best. We've got our acts together, so why not come join in the fun! Look for more information in your mailbox. (Marsha Thomas, box 510)

UPCOMING EVENTS

SATURDAY

February 2

All women in the Fuller community are invited to participate in a course on self-defense. This course will be held for four Saturdays (February 2-23), from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the Refectory. Cost will be $15 for Fuller women and $25 for off-campus women. The teacher will be Michelle Winterstein, a Psychology student, who has had wide experience in teaching self-defense, as well as in working with rape victims. The course will cover topics such as alternatives to violence and self-defense techniques. This is not a pleasant topic, but it is a very necessary one for women in today's world. Plan on attending! (Libbie Patterson, x. 167)

TUESDAY

February 5

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be on campus from 8:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Join in and give to this worthy cause. (Business Office, x. 195)

Students interested in the Air Force chaplaincy program are encouraged to schedule an appointment with Chaplain Colonel Mervin R. Johnson. Chaplain Johnson is particularly interested in first year students. Appointments may be set up in the Placement Office. (Glory Hees, x. 185)

WEDNESDAY

February 6

Interviews for students interested in full-time summer internships at Mount Hermon will be held throughout the day with Mr. Ron Demolar of the Mount Hermon Christian Conference Center. Please sign up in the Education for Ministry Office. (Joan Stock, x. 182)

Interviews for students interested in full-time summer internships will be held with Rev. Robert Vandall of the Calvary Baptist Church (American Baptist) in San Bernardino, California. Please sign up in the Education for Ministry Office. (Joan Stock, x. 182)

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY

February 6-7

All students: Sharon Gallagher, editor of Radix magazine in Berkeley, will be on campus. Sharon will be speaking at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday in Payton 101 on the subject of "Christian Distinctive on the Nuclear Issue." On Thursday, she will speak at chapel, followed by a brown bag lunch in Payton 101A. Sharon will discuss the subject of "Lifestyle and the Arts," at 3:00 p.m. in the Catalyst on Thursday. (Human Concerns Committee, box 707)

THURSDAY

February 7

All students are invited to a brown bag luncheon with Sharon Gallagher, editor of Radix magazine, to be held at 12 noon in Payton 101A. The luncheon is co-sponsored by the Women Students Committee and the Human Concerns Committee. (Libbie Patterson, x. 167)

SATURDAY

February 16

A "Rapid Reading Seminar" will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Lake Avenue Congregational Church. Some were unable to attend this seminar in October, and all are welcome to attend this one. The cost is $25 for the first family member, and $12.50 for each additional family member. Registration forms are available from Doris Wagner, and the deadline for registration is February 13. (Doris Wagner, x. 147)

Preparations for Fuller's annual summer study to Israel and other biblical lands are now in full swing. Last summer's session was extremely successful and we are very excited about the 1980 program. Picture yourself walking among the ruins of ancient Egypt, Jordan, Israel, and Greece, while acquiring 4 or 8 hours of elective credit. Students from other institutions are also welcome. Apply now! Applications are available from Dr. Fred Bush, or Dawn Waring. (Dawn Waring, box 190)

Do you have an interest in Eastern Europe? If so, we would like to invite you to join us on Friday, January 25, at 6:00 p.m. in the Refectory for the Missions potluck. See "This Week's Calendar" for more information. (Janet Halvorsen, box 302)

✓ Health Services available: free health care through a federally funded program, a 50% reduction at a local pediatrician, a clinic offering OB/GYN services (with sliding scale fees), teeth cleaning or x-raying for $5.00, oral surgery at a 50% reduction, and a local clinic which provides sliding scale fees. Many of these services are available to staff members as well as students. (Vicki Van Horn, x. 294)

The Travis Awards for predissertation study of issues relating to the integration of psychology and religion were established six years ago to honor students who excel in the area of the integration of psychology and theology. Any current student at Fuller may submit papers. Prizes of $100, $50, and $25 will be awarded in both experimental and theoretical categories. Papers will be judged according to four criteria: writing style and execution; completeness of thought; content; and, original development. The deadline for the 1979-80 awards is April 1. (Carolyn Frank, Committee Chairperson for the Travis Awards, box 1123)

Assertiveness Training Workshops for Christians will be held on January 26, February 2, and February 9. These workshops are a place where Christians can learn to communicate more effectively, and with more sensitivity. The workshops are part of a dissertation project being conducted by Randy Sanders and the cost will be an $8.00 deposit, refundable upon completion of the workshop. To apply, call 793-4843 in the evenings. (Randy Sanders, box 1189)

Elections for the All-Seminary Council President, Vice-President, and Treasurer will be held during the week of February 18. Ever thought of putting some of your ideas into action? Why not think about involving yourself in student government. The All-Seminary Council officers are taken seriously by the administration, staff, and faculty. These positions have stipends. If you are interested, drop us a note. Or, if you'd like to recommend someone for one of the jobs, fill in the form below and return it to box 202. (Harold Otterlei, box 202; Elaine Lyford, box 707; Jeff Lavender, box 142)

I'd like to recommend the following persons for All-Seminary Council offices:

SEMI SUPPLEMENT

NEW ARRIVALS AT THE BOOKSTORE include:

- Albert B. Lord, The Singer of Tales (paper) -- an exposition of the Parry-Lord theory of the relationship between oral traditions and written literature, which, although applied to Homer, has important ramifications for biblical interpretation (cf. Guttgemanns).
- Claus Westermann, The Promises to the Fathers: Studies in the Patriarchal Narratives -- Westermann traces the motif of promise in these Old Testament traditions.
- Daniel J. Harrington, God's People in Christ: New Testament Perspectives on the Church and Judaism (paper) -- an exploration of the relationship between the New Testament church and the people of Israel.
- Morton Smith, Hope and History, An Exploration -- hope as a motivating factor in history, and the crisis of hope in contemporary society.
- Jurgen Moltmann, The Future of Creation: Collected Essays -- Moltmann's thoughts on a variety of topics in theology, including some answers to his critics.
- Nicholas Lash, Theology on Dover Beach (paper) -- the Norris-Hulse Professor of Divinity at Cambridge, active in the current Incarnation debate, analyzes the historical basis of the Christian faith.
- Mary Daly, Gyn/Ecology: The Metaethics of Radical Feminism (paper) -- in her "Post-christian" journey, Ms. Daly eschews the "women's movement" as male-orchestrated tokenism and calls for an affirmation of "gynocentric be-ing."
- Conrad Cherry, Nature and Religious Imagination: From Edwards to Bushnell -- the use of nature imagery in American theology.
- James F. White, Introduction to Christian Worship (paper) -- a new and up-to-date handbook of contemporary options.
- P.T. Comeau, Workbook for Wheelock's Latin: An Introductory Course (paper) -- helpful exercises, especially for those learning on their own.
- William Zensier, On Writing Well
- Rudolph Flesch, The ABC of Style (paper)
- Vocabulary cards for Latin, French, German, and Biblical Greek are available.
